Re: Nat'l Fair Housing Alliance v. Facebook, Inc., No. 1:18-cv-02689-JGK

Dear Judge Koeltl:

Defendant Facebook, Inc. (“Facebook”) respectfully submits this letter-motion pursuant to this Court’s individual rule of practice 1(F) and Local Civil Rules 5.2(b) and 7.1(d), requesting a short extension of the deadline to file the reply in support of its Motion to Transfer Venue or Alternatively to Dismiss Plaintiffs’ First Amended Complaint (“Motion”) and an additional 1,000 words to address the Statement of Interest filed by the United States. Plaintiffs consent to Facebook’s request to extend the reply deadline and take no position on the request for additional words.

With respect to the reply deadline, after the parties stipulated to the current briefing schedule on Facebook's Motion, which the Court approved on July 2, 2018, the parties agreed to mediate the case with the two related cases pending in the Northern District of California on September 11, 2018. Under the current briefing schedule, Facebook's reply brief is due on September 14, 2018. Facebook respectfully requests that the deadline to file its reply be extended until September 24, 2018, so that Facebook can focus its efforts on preparing for the September 11, 2018 mediation session.

Facebook also respectfully requests an additional 1,000 words for its reply to address the Statement of Interest filed by the United States on August 17, 2018. On May 29, 2018, the Court granted the parties' joint request for an extension of the word limit for their Rule 12 briefs, allowing the parties 10,000 words each for the opening brief and opposition brief and allowing Facebook 4,000 words for the reply. As the parties explained at that time, the extension was requested due to the number and complexity of the issues to be briefed, including transfer of venue to California; Article III standing; personal jurisdiction; immunity under Section 230 of the Communications Decency Act, 47 U.S.C. § 230; and failure to state a claim for relief under applicable statutory law.

The Statement of Interest addresses only two of these issues and contains 6,990 words. After careful consideration of the extent to which the arguments raised in the Statement of Interest and Plaintiffs' opposition can be addressed together, and with a commitment to be as concise as possible in doing so, Facebook respectfully requests an additional 1,000 words for its reply for a total of 5,000 words.

Very truly yours,
